

- 4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism: aggressive propaganda → brainwashing; surveillance; censorship; police state (private armies / forces)
- "Spanish Civil War"
- idolized leaders
- all used propaganda
- imperialism
- highly managed image of all leaders.
- forced surrender of individuality of citizens
- censorship
- extreme ^{forms} government / nationalism
- victimized / victimization of certain groups (racism)
- violence used to gain land and other purposes
- private armies
- ignoring the stipulations of the Treaty of Versailles.
- innovation in terms of how politics and nation building was done.
- large public rallies
- civilians were brainwashed through propaganda
- equality for all
- genocide
- different techniques used to distribute propaganda.
ex. billboards, books, magazines, radio, films, etc.
- fear to oppose
- power come from a strong collectivism not individualism.

- want extreme power
- they do things against the treaty of Versailles
(ex. used mustard gas)
- they used propaganda, persuasive & charismatic - to cause a distraction
- 4 ingredients of dictatorship totalitarianism
 - ① Aggressive propaganda
 - ② Surveillance
 - ③ Censorship/loss of Individual rights
 - ④ Police state (private armies/forces)
- leaders are willing to cause terror to their people to gain a high position of authority
- racism, discrimination & inequality
- attack other places because they wanted more land
- anti-semitism, hate, fear
- cause & consequence for WW2 were because of things like militarism, nationalism, etc.
- A lot of things they did was planned
(ex. including other countries)
- Violent leaders

all leaders able to commit a genocide.
They all used propaganda to fuel personal goals.
and lie to public.

all ego maniacs.

authoritarian Dictatorship

Totalitarianism

aggressive Propaganda

Censorship was used through facism, nazism and Communism.

Surveillance.

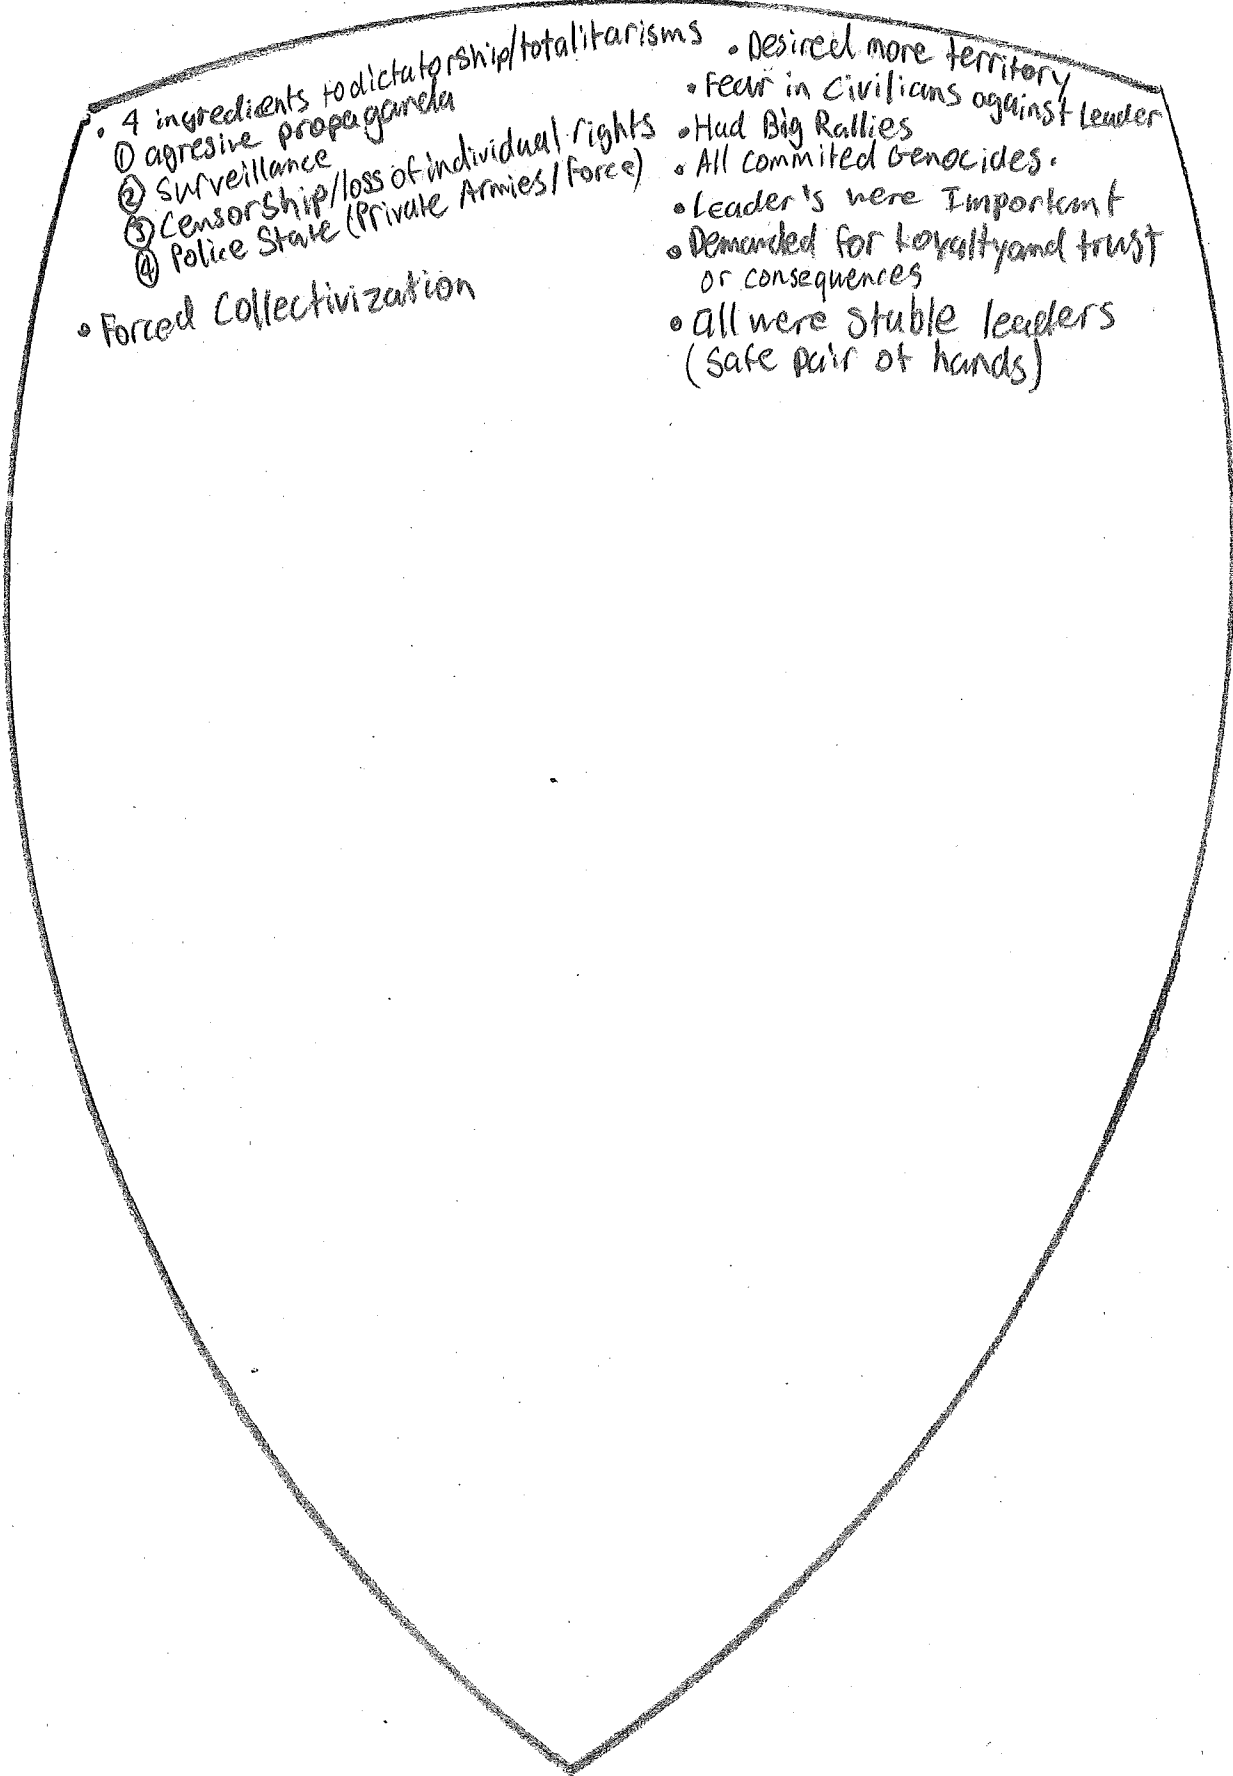

~~They all~~

They all were admired in their own ways.

Highly managed images.

Had extreme ideologies as to what would be perfect empire.

-
- 4 ingredients to dictatorship/totalitarianisms
 - ① aggressive propaganda
 - ② surveillance
 - ③ Censorship/loss of individual rights
 - ④ Police State (Private Armies/force)
 - Forced Collectivization
 - Desired more territory
 - Fear in civilians against leader
 - Had Big Rallies
 - All committed genocides.
 - Leaders were Important
 - Demanded for loyalty and trust or consequences
 - all were stable leaders (safe pair of hands)

Hugh Kelly

4 points of dictatorship totalitarianism

① Aggressive propaganda ② Surveillance

③ Censorship/loss of individual right ④ Police state (private armies)

- Hirohito, Mussolini, Hitler all seen as god's greatest gifts.

- All desired territory and extended borders from their country

- All used violence on the people of their country

- Put fear into their people against leader and consequences

If you were to defy him.

- They all had huge rallies in which they talked about their plans.

- They all committed acts of genocide.

- They all thought of themselves as better than their people

- They were all critical to their countries, armies, and government.

- They all demanded their people's loyalty and trust or else consequences would arise.

- All stable leaders until a big turning point

Brandyn
Pereira

4 Points of dictator ship
1 aggressive propaganda 2 surveillance
3 censorship 4 police state

- Threats to stability
- Desired more territory
 - Put fear into civilians against leader
 - Big battles
 - They all committed acts of genocide
 - they all demanded loyalty and trust
 - were stable leaders at one point
 - Leaders contributed to revolution

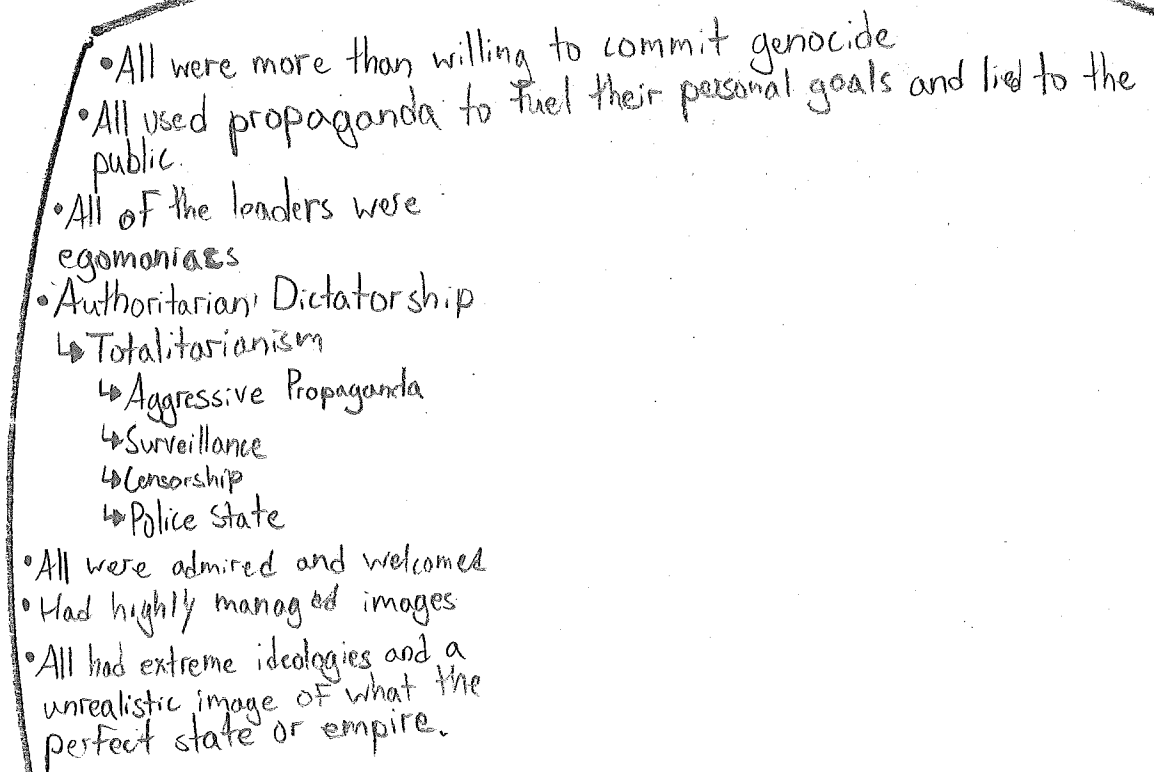

- All able to commit Genocide
- All used propaganda to fuel personal goals
- ~~Aggressive~~ Egomaniacs
- Vast Censorship
- ~~Private/whisper~~
- All admired with highly managed images
- totalitarianism
 - ↳ aggressive propaganda
 - ↳ surveillance
 - ↳ censorship
 - ↳ police state
- extreme wings of government

KLEX

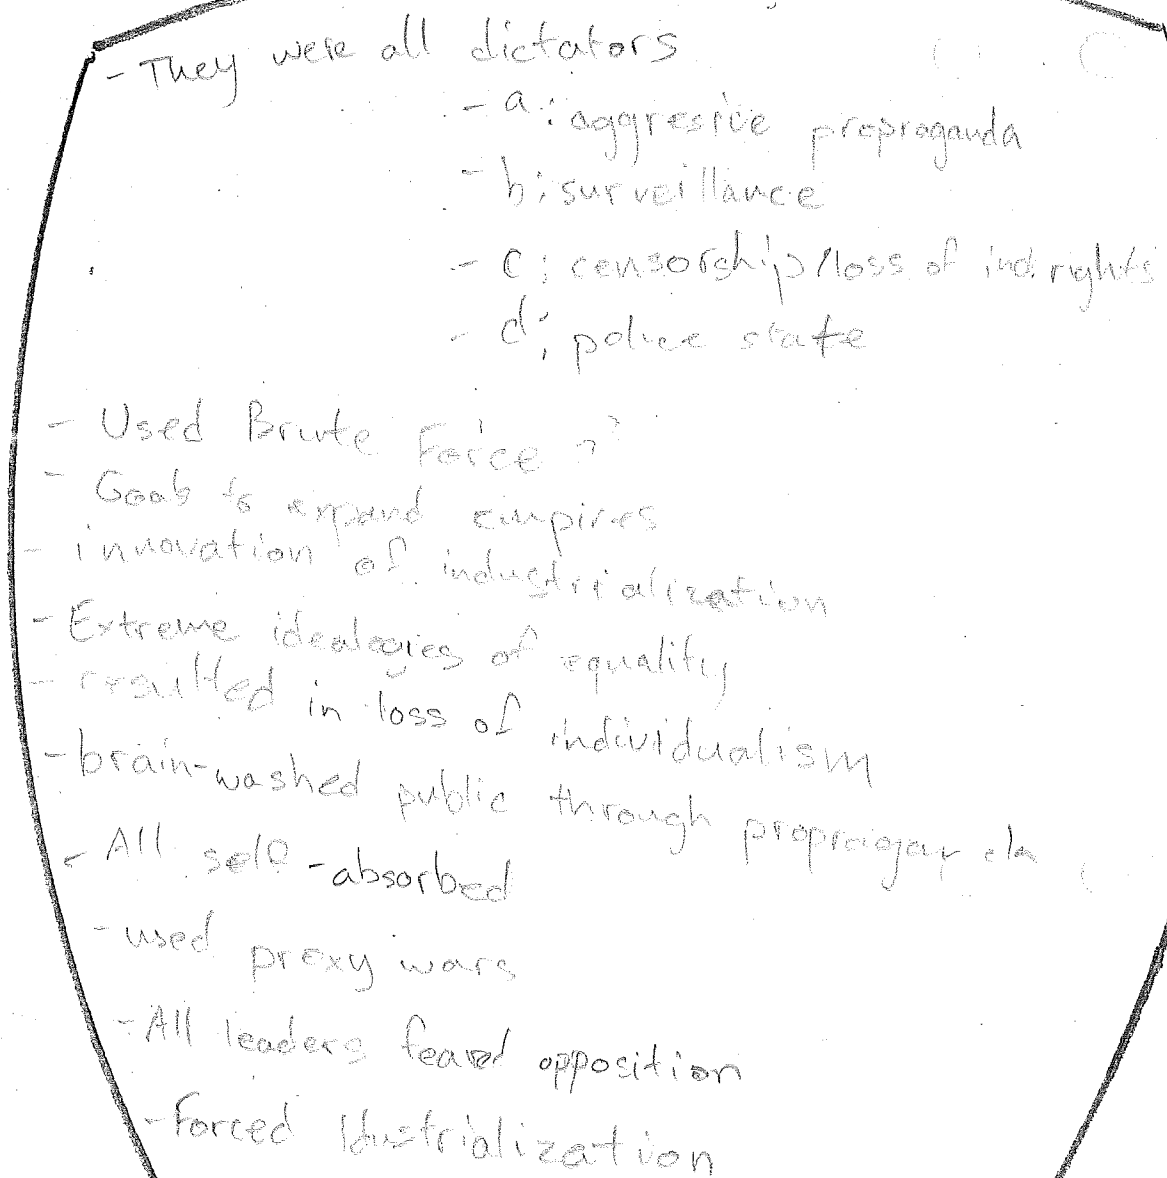

Alex

Hubbs

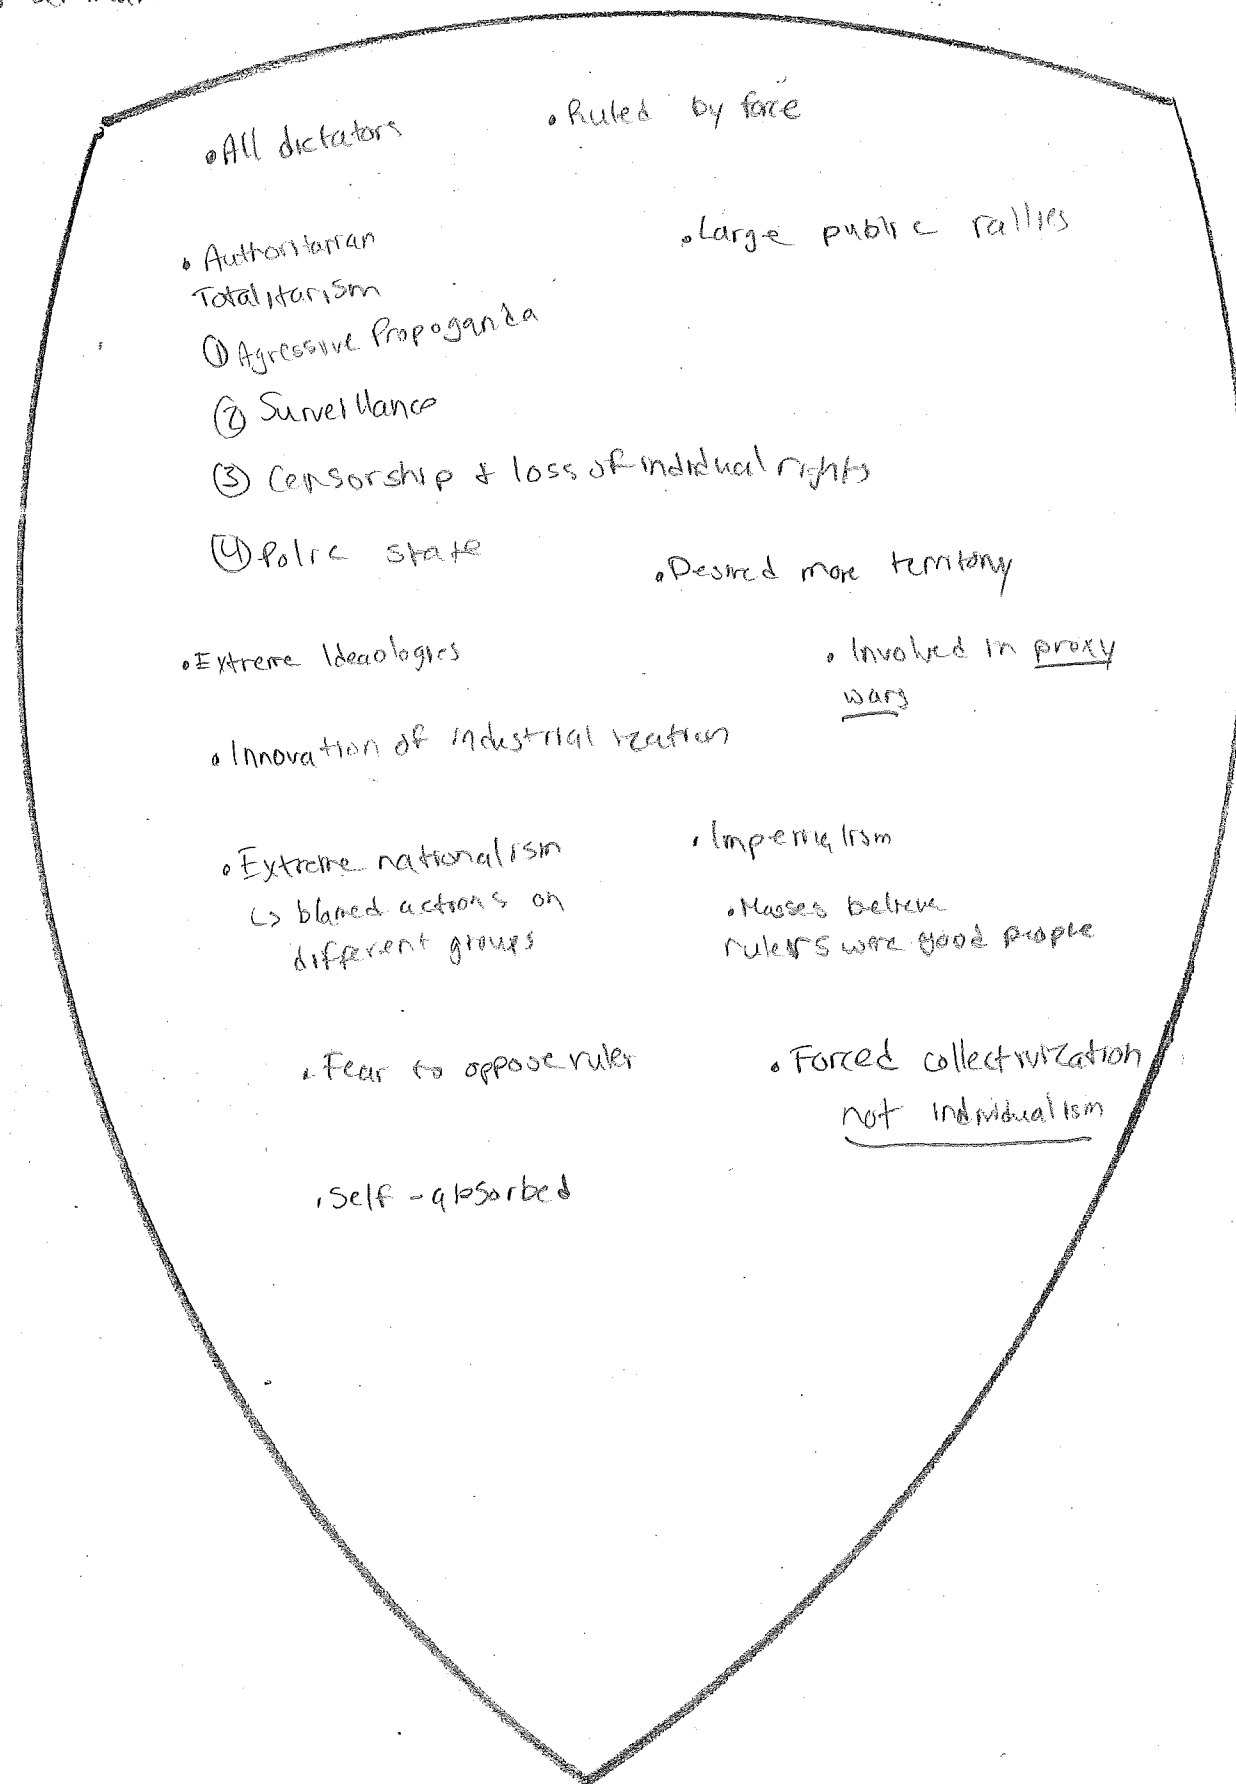

Jaylen S.T
History - Day 1
Jan 16th, 2015

-
- All were more than willing to commit genocide
 - All used propaganda to fuel their personal goals and lied to the public.
 - All of the leaders were egomaniacs
 - Authoritarian Dictatorship
 - ↳ Totalitarianism
 - ↳ Aggressive Propaganda
 - ↳ Surveillance
 - ↳ Censorship
 - ↳ Police State
 - All were admired and welcomed
 - Had highly managed images
 - All had extreme ideologies and a unrealistic image of what the perfect state or empire.

Why? Yuen

-
- They were all dictators
 - a: aggressive propaganda
 - b: surveillance
 - c: censorship/loss of ind. rights
 - d: police state
 - Used Brute Force?
 - Goab to expand empires
 - innovation of industrialization
 - Extreme ideologies of equality
 - resulted in loss of individualism
 - brain-washed public through propaganda
 - All self-absorbed
 - used proxy wars
 - All leaders feared opposition
 - forced industrialization

- Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin - All leaders/dictators
 - ↓ ↓ ↓
 - Germany Italy Soviet Union (Emperor included)
- 4 ingredients → Totalitarianism
 - Aggressive Propaganda
 - Surveillance
 - Censorship & loss of rights
 - police state
- collectivization (forced)
- Masses believed that ruler was a "God"
- Dictators/Leader ruled by brutal force
- All 3 had the goal to increase empires
 - innovation of industrialization
- Imperialism - self-image for positivity
- Extreme Ideologies that suppress or force people to have equality.
 - Individualism is lost
- All leaders used propaganda to brain-wash the general public
 - All involved in a proxy war for enlargement
 - Self-absorbed
 - Fear to oppose ruler

Borg

- They were all dictators
- Authoritarian/Talitarian → aggressive propaganda
 - surveillance
 - censorship / stripping of rights
 - police state

- Extreme ideologies that suppress or force people to have equality

• Individualism is lost • rule by one

- All leaders use propaganda
- All involved in proxy war - unnecessary war in other parts
- self absorbed
- All 3 had the goal to increase empires
- innovation of industrialization
- All leaders feared opposition

- They are all extreme
 - All use violence to get what they want
 - All use ~~use~~ brute force
 - All ruled by one
 - limits the freedom
 - no Private rights
 - All trying to expand there empire
 - all have "ism" at the end
 - All ~~must~~ follow there leader
 - Leaders are trusted by the population
 - All have no problem using genocide
 - All are a military based state
 - All have strong Military
 - All use fear to control
 - All use Propaganda to trick the population
 - Uses treat of war or take over to scare population (Jewish take over, communist)
 - All will destroy all those who oppose.
 - All have strict laws.
 - ~~consequence~~
- ① — aggressive propaganda
 ② — surveillance
 ③ — censorship
 ④ — police state

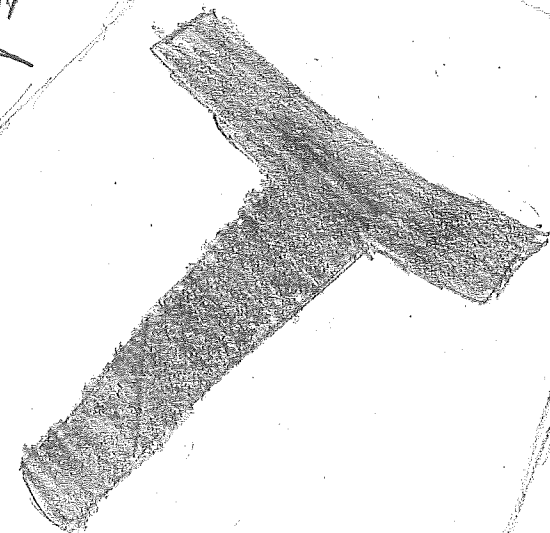

Michael Leone

- Majd, k

SHIELD OF BROKE JUSTICE

- extreme beliefs.
- aggressive propaganda
- use of violence and force.
- ruled by one.
- surveillance
- limits the freedom.
- police state
- no private rights.
- Trying to expand the empire.
- (They all have "-ism" in the end.)
- Trusted and admired leaders.
- All follow the leader
- Could use genocide
- strong and focused military
- Fear in citizens
- use of propaganda
- use of threat
- take down all
- opposing to government
- stricked ideology
- censorship

By the power of the holy justice son of the mighty bright honor, I declare peace on you!

- All have their own extreme ideology
 - ↳ ruled by one
 - ↳ fear to oppose ruler
 - ↳ limitations of freedom for the population

- All had goals in mind/wanted to grow nation
 - ↳ innovation of industrialization

- 4 ingredients of dictatorship totalitarianism (All used by Germany, Italy, Russia)

① Aggressive propaganda

② Surveillance

③ Censorship (loss of individual rights)

④ Police state

- extreme nationalism
 - ↳ blame actions on different groups

- ↳ believe actions were for betterment of the nation

- Involved in wars to gain control of land
 - ↳ Imperialism enlargens nations

- Usage of Propaganda

- ↳ creates self image to be positive

- ↳ Masses believe rulers are best for the country

- ↳ rulers are thought of as gods

- Rights were stripped from population

- ↳ Properties taken away

- ↳ rules set in motion to control nation.

- All have their own extreme ideology.
 - ↳ rule by one
 - ↳ fear to oppose ruler
 - ↳ limitations of freedom/rights for the population.
- All had goals in mind / wanted to grow nation (Imperialism)
 - ↳ innovation of industrialization
 - ↳ control of different nations by invading
- 4 ingredients of dictatorship totalitarianism (All used by Germany, Italy, Russia)
 - ① Aggressive propaganda
 - ② Surveillance
 - ③ Censorship (loss of individual rights)
 - ④ police state
- extreme nationalism
 - ↳ blamed actions on different groups
 - ↳ believed actions were for the betterment of the nation.
- Usage of Propaganda
 - ↳ creates self image to be positive
 - ↳ masses believe rulers are good / best for the nation
 - ↳ rulers are thought of as gods.
- Involved in proxy wars to gain control of land
- ↳ imperialism enlarges nations
- Rights were stripped from population
 - ↳ properties taken away
 - ↳ rules set in motion to control nation.

4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism:

- ① Aggressive propaganda
- ② Surveillance
- ③ censorship / loss of individual rights
- ④ Police state (private armies / forces)

→ Use of fear / brute force

* 4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism:

- ① Aggressive Propaganda
- ② surveillance
- ③ Censorship/loss of individual rights
- ④ Police state (private armies/forces)

→ use of fear / brute force

Authoritarian / totalitarian

• 4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism:

- ① Aggressive propaganda.
- ② Surveillance.
- ③ Censorship / loss of individual rights
- ④ Police state (private armies / forces)

• Admired by citizens.

• Power comes from collectivism, not individualism.

• Extreme imperialism.

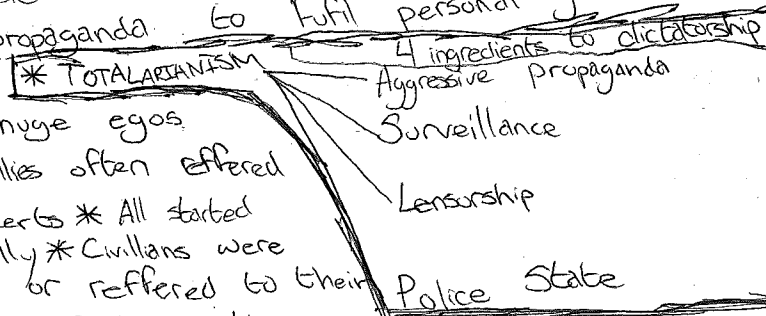

• Ruled by fear.

• Nationalism.

- 4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism
- ① aggressive propaganda
 - ② surveillance
 - ③ censorship/loss of individual rights
 - ④ police state/private army/force

- Imperialism - empire building - Admire by many of their citizens
- Power comes from a strong collectivism not individualism
- democracy was seen as "weak"
- Propaganda was used to mask atrocity
- All ruled by fear
- nationalism
- Egoistic Leaders
- main ideologies in Europe at the time
- fueled conflict somewhere else (proxy war)

- * All able to commit to genocide
 * All used propaganda to fulfil personal goal and deceive the public
 * All had huge egos
 * Gigantic rallies often referred to as concerts
 * All started ruling forcefully
 * Civilians were either afraid or referred to their leader as a person with powers to be feared
 * Censorship with all 3, people were silenced
 * All had well managed images to make them look good
 * All had extreme ideas of their idea countries
 * "Equality for all" wasn't really followed
 * Extreme nationalism
 * Nazism & Facism was more government owns everything

- 4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism
- ① aggressive propaganda → brain washing
 - ② surveillance
 - ③ censorship/loss of individual rights
 - ④ police state (private armies/forces)
- Spanish Civil War
 - They were all idolized leaders
 - Propaganda was used
 - Imperialism
 - Highly managed image of leaders
 - forced surrender of individuality.
 - Censorship
 - Extreme forms of leadership ideologies
 - victimization of certain group (racism)
 - Violence was used to gain land and for other purposes.
 - They all had private armies
 - Ignoring the stipulations of the treaty of Versailles
 - Innovation in terms of how nation building and politics was done.
 - Large public rallies were held
 - Civilians were brainwashed through propaganda.
 - Equality for all
 - genocide
 - Different techniques used to distribute propaganda
ex. News, film, books, billboards, radio, etc.
 - fear to oppose
 - collectivism

Chihls

- 4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism:

- ① ↳ aggressive propaganda → brain washing
- ② ↳ surveillance
- ③ ↳ censorship
- ④ ↳ police state

- spanish civil war
- They were all idolized leaders
- Imperialism
- propaganda was used
- highly organized groups of leaders
- forced surrender of individuality
- censorship
- extreme sense of leadership ideologies
- victimization of of certain group (Racism)
- Violence was used to gain land and for other purposes
- all had private army.
- ignore treaty of versailles
- Innovation in terms of how politics and nation building was done
- Large public rallies were held
- civilians were brainwashed through propaganda
- equality for all
- genocide
- different techniques used to distribute propaganda
ex. billboards, books, magazines, radio, films etc.

- 4 ingredients to dictatorship totalitarianism:
 - ↳ aggressive propaganda → brain washing
 - ↳ surveillance
 - ↳ censorship/loss of individuality
 - ↳ police state
- imperialism.
- All idolized leaders
- Forced surrender of all individuality of population
- extensive use of propaganda
- highly managed image of leader
- censorship
- extreme government ideologies.
- victimization of certain groups (racism)
- violence is used to gain land and other purposes
- all had private army (leader)
- ignore Treaty of Versailles
- innovation in terms of how nation building and politics was done
- large public rallies
- civilians were brain washed through propaganda
- genocide
- different techniques used to distribute propaganda ex. billboards, news, film, books, radio

- They all want extreme power.
 - They do things that are against the Treaty of Versailles (ex. using mustard gas) ^{that} _{by mustard gas}
 - They used propaganda _{used}
- 4 Ingredients to Dictatorship Totalitarianism

- ① Aggressive propaganda
 - ② Surveillance
 - ③ censorship/loss of individual rights
 - ④ Police state (private armies)
- Leaders are causing terror to gain position
 - Racism, discrimination
 - Attacked other places for land
 - Anti-semitism, hate, fear

- a lot of the things they did were planned
(ex: invading other countries)

- violent leaders

- political views where they want extreme power [they do certain things that were against the Treaty of Versailles (ex: using mustard gas) they used propaganda + persuasive & charismatic strategies to cause a kind of distraction

↳ Ingredients to Dictatorship Totalitarianism

① aggressive propaganda

② surveillance

③ censorship/loss of individual rights

④ police state (private armies/forces)

[leaders are willing to cause terror to their people to gain a high position of authority

- racism, discrimination + inequality

[attacked other places b/c they wanted more colonies/land

- anti-semitism, hate, fear

- causes B consequences for WW2 were b/c of Hungrs like militarism,

nationalism,

etc.