

Example: Present students with the list of causes of World War II suggested in the previous example. Ask students to illustrate the interconnection of these causes using a web. Such a diagram might look like the one below. Ask students to explain their analysis of the interacting causes.

