

SCHOOLS OF THOUGHT

Following the example, record key ideas belonging to each of the philosophical schools of thought you have learned about.

Natural Law	Legal Positivism	Legal Realism	Critical Legal Theory
There are fundamental principles that are always morally correct (e.g., murder is always wrong)	Laws should be followed simply because they are laws	What is true, moral and fair depends on the perspective of the individual	Laws reflect the biases of powerful social groups
D E J M	A H K L N P R	B C G Q T depends on interp of "lawmaker" sub category of legal positivism	F I O S