

R. v. JACOB LEGAL OPINION

Criteria	With High Distinction (L4+)	With Distinction (L4)	Met Expectations (L3)	Pass (L2)	Fail (L1)
Knowledge Understanding State the Appropriate Level of Criminal Responsibility that must be Assigned to Jacob (i.e., punishment). State and Explain the Purpose of Punishment most Important to Your Opinion on R. v. Jacob. Task 1 to 4.	The level of criminal responsibility and purpose of punishment are comprehensively explained and applied to the theory of crime to justify the recommendation made. Opinion (and research notes) includes ideas, criminal law concepts, facts, and theories that demonstrate knowledge of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment and case details.	The level of criminal responsibility and purpose of punishment are comprehensively explained and applied to the theory of crime to justify the recommendation made. Opinion (and research notes) includes ideas, criminal law concepts, facts, and theories that demonstrate knowledge of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment and case details.	The level of criminal responsibility and purpose of punishment are comprehensively explained and applied to the theory of crime to justify the recommendation made. Opinion (and research notes) includes ideas, criminal law concepts, facts, and theories that demonstrate knowledge of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment and case details.	The level of criminal responsibility and purpose of punishment are comprehensively explained and applied to the theory of crime to justify the recommendation made. Opinion (and research notes) includes ideas, criminal law concepts, facts, and theories that demonstrate knowledge of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment and case details.	The level of criminal responsibility and purpose of punishment are comprehensively explained and applied to the theory of crime to justify the recommendation made. Opinion (and research notes) includes ideas, criminal law concepts, facts, and theories that demonstrate knowledge of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment and case details.
Thinking Headline Your Opinion on the Theory of Crime Best Applicable to the Jacob Case. Task 1 to 4.	Explanation is accurate and comprehensive, and the headline is comprehensively considered. Points made are well supported with explanation, specific case details, and the core concept of the theory of crime.	Explanation is accurate and comprehensive, and the headline is comprehensively considered. Points made are well supported with explanation, specific case details, and the core concept of the theory of crime.	Explanation is accurate and comprehensive, and the headline is comprehensively considered. Points made are well supported with explanation, specific case details, and the core concept of the theory of crime.	Explanation is accurate and comprehensive, and the headline is comprehensively considered. Points made are well supported with explanation, specific case details, and the core concept of the theory of crime.	Explanation is accurate and comprehensive, and the headline is comprehensively considered. Points made are well supported with explanation, specific case details, and the core concept of the theory of crime.
Communication Directly cite (in-text) any sources used in writing your legal opinion, including the Criminal Code of Canada, the R. v. Jacob decision, the handout provided, or other online research sources.	Opinion is clear, concise, and well organized. The organization of writing supports and reinforces arguments made. Proper writing conventions evident throughout. Supporting research sources directly cited throughout the opinion.	Opinion is clear, concise, and well organized. The organization of writing supports and reinforces arguments made. Proper writing conventions evident throughout. Supporting research sources directly cited throughout the opinion.	Opinion is clear, concise, and well organized. The organization of writing supports and reinforces arguments made. Proper writing conventions evident throughout. Supporting research sources directly cited throughout the opinion.	Opinion is clear, concise, and well organized. The organization of writing supports and reinforces arguments made. Proper writing conventions evident throughout. Supporting research sources directly cited throughout the opinion.	Opinion is clear, concise, and well organized. The organization of writing supports and reinforces arguments made. Proper writing conventions evident throughout. Supporting research sources directly cited throughout the opinion.
Application First, second, third, &amp; fourth point and supporting details that back up your opinion (based on T, CD, CE, PC). Task 1 to 4.	Demonstrates application of supporting details that reinforce opinion. Includes effective linking of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment, and case details to supporting arguments 1 to 4.	Demonstrates application of supporting details that reinforce opinion. Includes effective linking of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment, and case details to supporting arguments 1 to 4.	Demonstrates application of supporting details that reinforce opinion. Includes effective linking of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment, and case details to supporting arguments 1 to 4.	Demonstrates application of supporting details that reinforce opinion. Includes effective linking of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment, and case details to supporting arguments 1 to 4.	Demonstrates application of supporting details that reinforce opinion. Includes effective linking of the theories of crime, the criminal elements of the offences, the purposes of punishment, and case details to supporting arguments 1 to 4.